

Weekly Family Worship

April 10, 2016

Know: El Shaddai “God Almighty”, indicates His mighty power. It also testifies to His justice and mercy.

Think: Understand that El Shaddai has power to judge, and power to save and bless.

Do: Trust and depend completely on God as your holy, loving, powerful El Shaddai.

Read—Genesis 17:1-8

Power is greatly coveted by many people, and some have great power in this world. God is the most powerful being there is, and He rightly uses His great power.

Worship — Praise to God.

Do—Walk With God

Option 1: God has complete power, and we see this in the story of Abraham’s covenant. God promised Abraham many things: a new name, land, and a nation. All of these things were to take place in the future, so God would have to have all power and authority in order to make them happen. Have your child try to predict what will happen in the next day or in a few hours, and have your child write it down (Make sure the prediction is extraordinary, just like God’s promises to Abraham were.) When that time comes around, take it back out and read it. Explain to your child that we don’t always know what the future holds because we do not have the power God does.

Option 2: Ask your family the following:

- What does it mean that God is “almighty”? (He has the power to do whatever He desires to do.)
- Are there any limits to what God can do? (He cannot violate His own nature—cannot lie, etc.)
- How does God use His power in the world today? (Holds the universe together; causes His will to be done; provides for His people, etc.)

Pray—Talk to God

Be faithful to love and obey almighty God who brought us into a relationship with Him through Christ. Pray that you and your family will choose to obey God no matter how difficult because He is all powerful, showing both justice and mercy.

This week in Sunday School...

Preschool

Today your child learned Almighty God is another one of God’s names. God told Abraham that he and his wife, Sarah, would have a baby. They were both very old, but God is so powerful He can do anything. God Has Many Names, and Almighty God reminds us of His power.

Elementary

Your student learned another name for God is El Shaddai, which means God Almighty. When Abram was 99 years old, God promised him a family. At this point, Abram had no children, but he knew God was All Powerful and anything was possible with God.

Youth

Teens studied the name El Shaddai and what it says about God, and, in turn, our relationship with Him. Talk to your teens about ways God has shown His almighty power in your life.
